Now's The Time

Why am I always late for each important date?
Why must I always scurry to avoid my being late?
No time to say hello now
(nor) time to say good-bye, wow.
Seems my never-ending fate
is always to be late

Never a reason nor even a rhyme.
Now's the time.

I always seem to be a time catastrophe.
Why can't I change my silly ways, reject reality?
I'm such a silly rabbit
to keep this silly habit.
Why can I never deviate
from this unhealthy state?

Never a reason nor even a rhyme.
Now's the time.
